THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (DR. AKHILESH PRASAD SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir. The Indian Council of Agricultural Research has taken initiatives in areas of research and development through ICAR Institutes/Directorate/(s)/National Research Centres (NRCs) and All India Coordinate Research Projects located in different agro climatic zones/states. The programme is focused on development of varieties/hybrids and associated technologies suited for different agro-climatic regions across the country.

(b) The Institute(s)/Directorate(s)/NRC do not function on the basis of territorial jurisdiction. These are established on the basis of importance of crops and requirements. The Central Institutes/National Institutes of ICAR are undertaking the basic and strategic research and catering to the need of entire country and of different states. The AICRP centres are located in different states based on the crops grown and requirements.

(c) Yes, Sir. Budgetary allocations are made as per the requirement of the Institutes/Directorate(s)NRC(s) and AICRPs. The budget estimates for the year 2006-07 was about Rs. 376 crores under Plan.

(d) Not Applicable.
